Leslie's Musings

Friends in Christ, every year at the time of the Christian Passover we celebrate our redemption through the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Lent is a time to prepare for this celebration and to renew our life in the paschal mystery. We begin this holy season by remembering our need for repentance, and for the mercy and forgiveness proclaimed in the gospel of Jesus Christ.

~from Liturgical Year Supplemental Liturgical Resource 7

While Lent doesn't begin until Ash Wednesday—March 1 this year—I wanted you to know about a church-wide project. I was inspired by the wildly popular book, Wreck this Journal by Keri Smith, and challenged by the Rev. Theresa Cho, a Presbyterian pastor in San Francisco, whose church took on a “churchly” version of the project. Rev. Cho's church took the pages out of old hymnals they were replacing, and made them into Lenten journals for the congregants, with different and challenging instructions for the 40 days of Lent.

Keri Smith challenges her readers to carry a journal with them, and to explore the earthier aspects of our surroundings—literally. The reader seeks out dirt, sticky substances, water and the like and transfers them into the journal. Rev. Cho took it a step farther, in encouraging her flock to think theologically about Lent—a time of fasting, discipline, and study—and put it into a journal.

We're handing out journals to anyone who wants one, from the youngest to the most mature, with prompt words already in them. The idea is to challenge ourselves to think about our faith in new and boldly creative ways. Each day of Lent brings a new word and activity. For instance, the second day of Lent, you throw your journal from a high place. Another day, you write an entry with your non-dominant hand. As Lent is a time to explore the sin and stain in our souls and our world, Wreck This Lenten Journal is a time to creatively express how suffering affects our lives. If the idea of this creative chaos makes you uncomfortable, you're not alone.

Our schools and workplaces teach us to be orderly and even submissive. Creativity disrupts the status quo and forces us to change—and let's admit that we all hate change! Even so, Lent is a perfect season to unleash our creativity and to try looking at life from a different perspective. What we've been doing has left many of us isolated, a stranger to our neighbors, and fearful of the world around us. Jesus, meanwhile, is eating with tax collectors and prostitutes, asking us to do the same, as he journeys toward his bodily destruction on Good Friday.

If this pushes your boundaries too much, then consider joining others on Wednesday evenings during Lent for soup, bread, a short devotion and fellowship. We'll start at 6 and be done in time for our Hebrew scholars' class. (See the article inside for more details.)

Meanwhile, we continue in the season of Epiphany throughout February, so remember this is a season of light and revelation. As you come to know our Triune God in new ways, won't you tell me about it? I'll come to you or stop by my study. And as always, I'll see you in church.

Love, Leslie

IT'S HYMN AUCTION TIME...

...And this year, we have 2 AUCTIONS!!

The first one is to "retire" a hymn for the rest of 2017.

The second one is to sing a hymn more frequently - once a month.

The bid amount is starting at $1.00 for each auction, going up in $1 increments until we reach...MORE!

The auctions will be held on February 26th after the worship service. Please come and save our handbells - they need repair work done and the auction money will help defray the expense.

In the months leading up to the handbell trip, there will be a glass block bank in the narthex on Sundays, in which you can put any extra change you might have. This money will also be placed in the handbell fund. We will need money to ship the bells back home, so your change will make this happen!

Come on out February 26th for a great time and lots of laughs - and reach down deep into your pockets for some change!

Wednesday Soup Suppers

It's long been a "church tradition" for folks to gather around a table on Wednesdays during Lent, to share food and fellowship. We'd like to revive that tradition, so starting on March 8 at 6:00, we'll gather in the parlor for homemade soup and bread. Pastor Leslie will offer a devotional or exercise, and we'll be done in time for Peggy Brown's Old Testament scholars to buckle down to their tasks. On March 15, our devotion time will be the Healing and Blessing Service at 6:30, so if you've meant to come, now is your chance! The remaining dates are March 22, 29 and April 5, all at 6:00 pm.

There will be a signup sheet in the narthex for those who would like to provide soup and bread each week. We hope you'll enjoy this new/old Lenten practice.

A Stephen Ministry Message by Janet Haacker

HEY!

YES - YOU OVER THERE!

Come on over here a minute. This message is for YOU!

How do I know it's for you? Well, actually YOU know it's for you because God is whispering in your heart right at this very moment and YOU know He wants you to read this. He's telling you this is exactly what you need; exactly what He has planned for you!

"You are not alone," He says!

He knows the difficulty you are going through. He knows how hard it is for you right now. He knows how heavy your heart is and He has a plan for you! He has a way for you to feel His love and comfort.

God has been at work preparing a Stephen Minister's heart and mind to be ready for your particular trouble. He has been guiding this special person to grow, study, and pray for you even though your name is not known yet.

Don't believe me?

Go ahead and test it! Pray! Ask God what He wants you to do!

Go ahead and talk with Him and then LISTEN. He will in some way direct you to make that phone call or speak to someone who can continue to move God's plan along just for YOU!

I dare you to take the test!

Pray for guidance and see where He leads you!

"The Lord is good, a refuge in times of trouble. He cares for those who trust in Him."

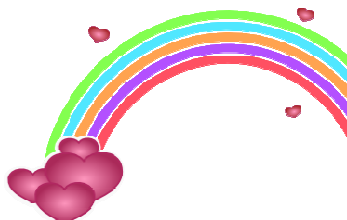

Nahum 1:7
