PRELUDE

““St. Anne Fugue”

CALL TO WORSHIP

Becoming a baby,

Christ transformed all of us into his sisters and brothers.

Telling us stories we had forgotten, or standing on faith's shoreline:

God helps us to walk the paths of discipleship.

Becoming foolish in the world's eyes,

the Spirit teaches us all we need to find our way into the kingdom.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

GATHERING SONG

“God Welcomes All”

THEMBA AMEN

CALL TO RECONCILIATION

PRAYER FOR FORGIVENESS

We would want to be fountains of hope for others, God of glory, but people find only hardened hearts.

We would like to be transformed people, but our stubborn pride prevents us from bending a knee to you.

We long to stand with those who are in need,
but our selfishness keeps our backs rigid with judgment.

Forgive us, God who came down to us.

Humble us, that we might be true servants to the broken and lost.

Split open our frozen hearts, that compassion might flow freely to those who are hurting.

Fill our minds with the presence of your Spirit, that we might learn how to follow Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, into that kingdom of grace and hope.

Franz Liszt used this melody for a "Crusaders' March" in an oratorio, but this hymn had nothing to do with the Crusades. No record of the German text exists before the middle of the 17th century or of the Silesian folk melody before the first half of the 19th century.

726 Will You Come and Follow Me

The Summons

1 "Will you come and fol - low me if I but call your name?
2 "Will you leave your-self be-hind if I but call your name?
3 "Will you let the blind - ed see if I but call your name?
4 "Will you love the 'you' you hide if I but call your name?
5 Lord, your sum-mons ech - oes true when you but call my name.

Will you go where you don't know and nev - er be the same?
Will you care for cruel and kind and nev - er be the same?
Will you set the pris - oners free and nev - er be the same?
Will you quell the fear in - side and nev - er be the same?
Let me turn and fol - low you and nev - er be the same.

Will you let my love be shown; will you let my name be known;
Will you risk the hos - tile stare should your life at - tract or scare?
Will you kiss the lep - er clean, and do such as this un - seen,
Will you use the faith you've found to re-shape the world a - round,
In your com - pa - ny I'll go where your love and foot-steps show.

will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?"
Will you let me an - swer prayer in you and you in me?"
and ad - mit to what I mean in you and you in me?"
through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?"
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

The first four stanzas of this ballad-like hymn are understood to be in the voice of Christ, with the fifth reflecting the individual singer's response. Created for this traditional Scottish tune, the text was written to mark the conclusion of a youth volunteer's time of ministry.
